First Quarter Earnings Announcement

On April 12, 1994, the Company announced that earnings advanced 17 percent in the first quarter of 1994 to 54 cents per share, a new record. In the year earlier period, earnings were 46 cents per share.

Net income increased 19 percent in the quarter to $78,711,000 from $66,342,000 in the 1993 quarter. Operating revenues gained 4 percent to $876,625,000 compared to $844,730,000 as accelerating economic growth fueled stronger advertising demand. Operating income advanced 19 percent to $142,456,000, because costs increased just over one percent.

Approximately 147 million shares were outstanding in the first quarter of 1994, compared to almost 146 million shares in the 1993 interval.

In a statement, the Company said stronger demand for classified advertising contributed significantly to newspaper revenue gains in the quarter, while uniformly strong broadcasting results were buoyed by Winter Olympics advertising on its two CBS-affiliated television stations.

Newspaper profits grew 9 percent to $142,660,000. Newspaper revenues advanced 4 percent in the quarter to $745,697,000. Advertising revenues gained 6 percent, including an 11 percent gain in classified revenues. Help wanted classified gains were sequentially higher each month.

At USA TODAY, advertising revenues were even with the record 1993 level. Paid advertising pages totaled 931, down 4 percent from 1993's 970 pages.

Broadcasting profits jumped 134 percent to $21,173,000 from $9,036,000 in the 1993 quarter. Pro forma television revenues advanced 9 percent and earnings improved significantly, reflecting revenue gains and slightly lower costs. Radio revenues rose 8 percent, but on a pro forma basis were up 27 percent. Radio costs were modestly higher and the group reported a sharp rebound in profits from year-earlier results. Broadcast earnings comparisons with 1993 were also favorably affected by the recent sale of four radio stations and the Company's television station in Boston.

Outdoor advertising revenues declined 2 percent to $46,921,000 in the quarter, and its seasonal loss was $4,729,000 compared to a loss of $4,061,000 in the 1993 quarter.

The Company's By-Laws provide for indemnification of officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by such Delaware law. Item 16. Exhibits.

See Exhibit Index.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in the periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES AND POWER OF ATTORNEY

Each person whose signature appears below hereby constitutes and appoints John J. Curley, Douglas H. McCorkindale and Thomas L. Chapple, or any one of them, acting alone, as his true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with full power and authority to execute in the name, place and stead of each such person in any and all capacities and to file, an amendment or amendments to this Registration Statement (and all exhibits thereto) and any documents relating thereto, which amendment may make such changes in this Registration Statement as said officer or officers so acting deem(s) advisable.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the County of Arlington, Commonwealth of Virginia, on April 15, 1994.
